Tournament matches*

Tonight's Match: The match will mark the third time in franchise history that Rochester has faced Chicago in tournament play. The first came in 1999 when the Rhinos upset the heavily favored Fire 1-0 on a 51st minute goal from Yari Allnutt en route to their 1999 Open Cup title.

The second meeting came in 2005 when Sam Caballero scored in the 34th minute to give the visitors the lead. Rochester's Doug Miller tied the score for Rochester in the 60th minute, however the two sides remained tied after 120 minutes of play. Chicago would advance after the penalty kick round, (5-4).

Who's on Fire?: Chicago enter's tonight's match unbeaten in their last seven matches while the Rhinos have also played well recently. The Rhinos also haven't lost in seven straight (5 USL/2 USOC).

Open Cup Facts: The Fire have posted an all-time record of 26-9-2 in tournament play, appearing in the finals five times, capturing the U.S. Open Cup title four times (1998, 2000, 2003 and 2006). The Rhinos meanwhile are 27-12-5 in Open Cup play. They have appeared twice and won the tournament in 1999.

Hot, Hot, Hot: Rhinos goalkpeer Neal Kitson has played well in June. Currently has not allowed an opponent to score in the last 379 minutes, including USOC matches. The second-year pro has also recorded a goal and an assist during the month of June.

U.S. Soccer also announced that should Rochester defeat the Fire they would host a quarterfinal match as Sahlen's Stadium on Tuesday, July 12th.

USL: The Rhinos will return to USL play on Friday when they host the Richmond Kickers at Sahlen's Stadium. They will continue the weekend play on Sunday, July 3 at home against Orlando City.
